

GPS (Global Positioning System) receiver

720,000 baud modem; 1,440,000 baud send/receive FAX modem

Cellular phone

OCR (Optical Character Recognition) software for received FAX

Satellite TV receiver

Stereo microphones with voice recognition

TV (NTSC/PAL) in/out
SCSI/FireWire out

Color TV camera

Backlit 240 X 320 active matrix 32-bit color screen, diamond film coated scratchproof

Diffuse infrared transceiver, can control TVs and VCRs

512 Mbyte storage
32 Mbyte RAM
1.1 Gbyte ROM

Two PCMCIA-7 slots, up to 4 Gbytes RAM

Stereo speakers

Ports for analog and digital phone, printer, LocalTalk, Ethernet, Token Ring

In ROM:
Webster's Dictionary
Roget's Thesaurus
Bartlett's Quotations
Encyclopedia Britannica
U.S. Documents (presidential speeches, Constitution, etc.)

210 megaHertz ARM RISC chip

4 AAA lithium/zinc/hydride batteries, 120 hour life

possible
future
Newton

